The authors of this paper informed us about the existence of an error. Remzi Akturk has been listed as a co-author in this article. In order to prevent ethical issues, all authors of this article agreed that he should be listed as a guest author instead of co-author because he did not contribute in data collecting. Because of that, the name Remzi Akturk is removed from the author's list in this article.

All authors send a signed agreement that the name of Remzi Akturk must be removed from the author's list.

According to this, the list of the authors on pages 115 and 119

“Serdar Serinsoz, Remzi Akturk, Sibel Bayramoglu”

should be replaced with:

“Serdar Serinsoz, Sibel Bayramoglu”
